

DARE TO DREAM JR.

A DISNEY MUSICAL REVUE

ABOUT THE SHOW

The Walt Disney Imagineers are responsible for the creation, design, and construction of Disney theme parks and theatre shows.

Founded by Walt Disney to oversee the production of Disneyland and all Disney theatre productions, the 'Imagineers' are composed of illustrators, architects, engineers, lighting designers, show writers, choreographers, actors, musicians and graphic designers.

Dare to Dream Jr, follows an eager group of trainees on their first day at a fictional Walt Disney Imagineering Studio. As the group sets out to help each other discover their dreams, they work together to explore the power of dreams to unite, inspire, and make anything possible.

Drawing from a century of beloved Disney films, Dare to Dream JR. features songs appearing for the first time ever in a Disney stage musical, including fan favourites from The Princess and the Frog, Coco, Encanto, and Frozen II. This musical show is a thrilling mix of contemporary songs, timeless classics, and brand-new medleys that are sure to surprise and delight all ages.

Designed specifically for today's young performers and full of opportunities for ensembles big and small, Dare to Dream JR. turns a century of Disney magic into a theatrical celebration of music, creativity, and the dreams that live inside us all.
